Hazelden Springbrook, originally Springbrook Northwest, was founded to provide addicted individuals a high quality, effective recovery experience addressing their unique needs. Hazelden Springbrook has a long-standing national reputation for excellence in treating professionals, especially those in the healthcare field. Since joining the Hazelden family, this nationally respected program can now provide even more resources to anyone seeking help for addiction to alcohol or other drugs.

Hazelden Springbrook is located in the quiet countryside of Newberg, Oregon on a 23-acre campus that promotes an atmosphere of respect, serenity, and support. Hazelden Springbrook's caring experts deliver comprehensive abstinence-based recovery services to anyone 18 years of age or older.
